Brief Description of Arguments to be Presented:

US Pats. Nos. 6178422 to Tada, 5819295 to Nakagaw

The combination of applied references does not reasonably suggest, for example, defining a retrieval condition for retrieving an object, the retrieval condition being defined based on at least one attribute of the object; setting an access right in association with the retrieval condition; setting an identifier for identifying the object, the identifier associated with the object in a one-to-one relationship; and in response to an access request from a user for the object matching the retrieval condition and the identifier, performing access control on the basis of the access right.

Applicant requests supervisory participation with decision-making authority (Examiner Fleurantin) in view of the protracted prosecution of this application.
